

INTERNATIONAL CERTIFICATE IN DANCE STUDIES (1) (Professional) (150 Hours)

About the Programme

The above Certificate is validated by the International Dance Council (CID), who are an official partner of UNESCO.

The New Zealand Institute of Curriculum Design (Te Wānanga Hoahoa Mātauranga Aotearoa) is a member of CID and the only validated provider of this programme in New Zealand.

Programme Aim

Dance in this programme is approached from an international perspective and examines the role and contributions dance makes to communities, society, education, and individuals. Understandings of the history, cultural and/or ethnic context, communicative capabilities and value of diverse dance forms are developed. This programme includes study and experience in dance studies, dance practice, dance technique, dance education and facilitation, choreography, rehearsal, performance, and the evaluation of theoretical and practical dance studies. Note: There are 2 further levels of this programme available to graduates.
